

The Plain Dealer says NO on 5, YES on 6

Issue 6: "the only plan for change"

—Plain Dealer 8/16/09

"Issue 5 is counterfeit reform, pushed by many of the same people who helped make county government a joke. Vote No on Issue 5." —Plain Dealer 10/04/09

"So inefficient is this government that County Treasurer Jim Rokakis estimates it wastes between $40 million and $60 million annually. That's $46.15 of waste for every man, woman and child in Cuyahoga County — every single year." —Plain Dealer 11/04/08

Waste and Duplication

"County Treasurer Jim Rokakis told a state-appointed reform panel last fall that waste and duplication cost taxpayers at least $40 million a year" —Plain Dealer, Kevin O'Brien, Columnist, 3/01/09

Vote Yes on 6

"Issue 6 is the real deal, a new structure for doing the people's business that is the product of a 15-year civic discussion." —Plain Dealer 10/04/09

6

PROPOSED CHARTER (By Petition) COUNTY OF CUYAHOGA

A majority affirmative vote is necessary for passage

Shall a county charter be adopted providing for an elected county executive, an elected county prosecutor, eleven county council members elected by district, and all other county officers appointed by the county executive whose appointments are subject to the confirmation by council and who shall serve at the pleasure of the county executive?

YES

"Issue 6 would introduce real checks and balances and blow up the fiefs that now encourage cronyism and waste." —Plain Dealer 10/12/09

Issue 6 for our economic future

"...the Issue 6 charter mandates the county adopt a five-year economic development plan and work with local governments for the economic good of the county." —Plain Dealer 10/13/09

ENDORSED BY

League of Women Voters
Greater Cleveland Partnership
COSE (16,000 Small Businesses)
Hispanic Roundtable
African American Business Leaders
The Center for Community Solutions
The Plain Dealer and Crain's

U.S. Senator George Voinovich
Ohio Lt. Governor Lee Fisher
County Prosecutor Bill Mason
State Senators Nina Turner and Dale Miller; State Reps. Nan Baker and Tim DeGeeter
Dozens of mayors, councilpersons and community leaders

Tuesday Nov. 3rd

Vote YES ON 6.